WHAT IS SCREENWRITER SESSIONS?

The Nantucket Film Festival (NFF) in partnership with the Almanack Screenwriters (a non-profit dedicated to fostering the talents of emerging screenwriters) designed this exciting initiative in 2021 in response to the pandemic and our ever changing world, to provide unique experiences to emerging screenwriters of all backgrounds. The pilot program was titled Screenwriters Sessions LIVE and featured Charlie Kaufman (ETERNAL SUNSHINE OF THE SPOTLESS MIND), Nancy Meyers (SOMETHINGS GOTTA GIVE), Greg Nava (EL NORTE), Stella Meghie (THE PHOTOGRAPH), and Leslie Dixon (MRS. DOUBTFIRE). They each provided a guest lecture and a wonderfully personal Q&A that our participants loved. Twenty seven emerging screenwriters participated in the series and a third of the slots were given in scholarship to BIPOC screenwriters who were nominated by partner organizations including the National Hispanic Foundation for the Arts and WGAE.

Since our inaugural year, this successful program has grown and included such preeminent guest speakers as: Tom McCarthy (SPOTLIGHT), Sian Heder (CODA), Nicole Holofcener (THE LAST DUEL), James Schamus (THE ICE STORM), and Lulu Wang (THE FAREWELL), Shaka King (JUDAS AND THE BLACK MASSIAH), Julio Torres (PROBLEMISTA), Emily V. Gordon & Kumail Nanjiani (THE BIG SICK) who provided the participants with important insights to hone their new ideas for a screenplay.
